The East Denver Orthodox Synagogue was established 1962 in the basement of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coopersmith's home.

When the time came to look for property, there was a vacant lot on Holly and Cedar. The committee made contact with the land owner, who informed them that her grandfather would be very proud to know that a "Jewish Synagogue" would be built on his property.

EDOS has since served continuously as a hallmark of Orthodox Judaism for our Community. Our Shul is noted for its daily Minyanim, Shiurim, including its long running Daf Yomi program. Our Shul is instrumental in the creation and continuance of the Eruv, Bikur Cholim, Chevra Kadisha, Rose Hill Cemetery, all three Day Schools, and other important organizations. Our members are also active in many Chesed projects within the Denver Community and the Jewish community at large.

Message from Rabbi Rapp

Our tradition has much to say in favor of those who dedicate themselves towards the betterment of others. For example, the book of Daniel, when discussing the end of days, comments, ומְצַדִּיקֵי הָרַבִּים כְּכּוֹכְבִּים לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד - and they that turn the many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever. Similarly, the Mishna in פרקי אבות states כל המזכה את הרבים אין חטא - Anyone who brings merit to the many, sin does not result from him. These are examples of the benefits afforded to the individuals who devote their time to public service.

While this is a very high level to achieve, the Talmud (בבא מציעא דף פה') tells us that there is a higher level of the person who teaches Torah to others. This person not only acquires the right to sit in the heavenly study hall, but they also have the ability to reverse negative decrees. Tonight, we gather to honor those who have earned the title of communal teachers of Torah. While we have a deep appreciation to all of those who dedicate their time and efforts to the community, it is appropriate that we focus on those who provide the highest service to to our community - those who share with us their Torah knowledge.

For the past 55 years, EDOS has distinguished itself as a Shul that emphasizes the primary importance of consistent, well attended Minyanim and regular Torah learning. Without the dedication of tonight's honorees, this would not be possible.

Therefore, on behalf of the EDOS community, I would like to thank the honorees and bless them with years of good health to continue to serve our community and the entire כלל ישראל.

EDOS
55 YEARS

Message from the President

Dear Friends:

For the past 55 years, EDOS has played a leading role on the center stage of Jewish life in Denver. From its humble beginning in 1962, with only 13 members, EDOS has grown to be the premier centrist orthodox Synagogue on the East Side of Denver. For all these years, our Shul has continued to provide uninterrupted and well attended daily, Shabbos, and Yom Tov Minyanim. Our daily Shuirim, Daf Yomi class, the annual Summer Kollel, Shabbatonim, Scholar in Residence weekends, and other programs, are a continued source of pride to our members. Our Shul has also promoted and encouraged the members to be involved in Chesed and Community work.

The theme of this year's dinner is, the learning, teaching, and disseminating of Torah. For many years now, EDOS has been more than just a Shul. Through our many daily and weekly Shiurim, guest speakers, Scholars in Residence, Summer Kollel, etc, we have become a beacon of light and a bastion of spreading Torah to the Denver community. This task was, and continues to be, accomplished through the efforts, dedication, and commitment of many volunteer Torah Scholars, from within and outside our community. The Shul would like to take this opportunity to recognize and thank all those who have given their time and effort to help us spread Torah to the Denver community.

Under the rabbinic leadership of Rabbi Rapp, our Shul continues to be recognized nationally as a bastion of Torah, Tefillah and Chesed. Let us pray and hope that we continue to lead the way and provide a steadfast message of "Torah Im Derech Eretz" for many years to come.

Mazal Tov to all the Honorees

EDOS
55 YEARS

Message from the Board of Directors

Mazal Tov to EDOS on its 55 years. During these 55 years, EDOS has been a beacon of Torah, Tefillah (praying), Limud (learning), and Chesed (acts of kindness), instilling valuable lessons to the generations that have passed through these doors. This year we are honoring our Eitzei Torah, those who are actively involved in conducting our Shiurim in deepening our knowledge of Torah. We are blessed with so many in the community over our 55 years as a shul. The current roster and our special Honorees tonight includes: Dr. Shimon Blau, Rabbi Yisroel Engel, Dr. Steve Feldman, Rabbi Mordechai Fleisher, Shlomo Fried, Dr. Ivan Geller, Tzvi Gelt, Rabbi Hillel Goldberg (Librarian), Rabbi Aver Jacobs, Yisrael Katz, Rabbi Benji Last, Rabbi Raphael Leban, Avi Mehler, Rabbi Daniel Rapp & Dr. Chaya Rapp, Rabbi Chaim Sher, Rabbi Akiva Stern, Dr. Yitzchak Teitelbaum, Rabbi Yoel Unger, Rabbi Danny Wolfe.

The current Torah offered at EDOS throughout the year is as follows: Daily Daf Yomi, Daily Halacha Following Shacharis, Daily Dvar Torah/Halacha between Mincha and Maariv, Halacha In the Parsha Shiur Sunday Morning, MB Glassman Seniors Lunch & Learn on Monday, Gemorah Chaburah on Tuesday Morning, Machshava Shiur on Tuesday Night, NCSY Tuesday Night Beis Medrash Thursday Gemorah Chaburah, Friday Night Dvar Torah, Shabbos Morning Rambam Shiur, Shabbos Morning Dvar Torah, Shabbos Afternoon Shiurim, Shalosh Seudos Dvar Torah, Rosh Hashanah Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Yom Kippur Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Succos Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Chanukah Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Tu B'Shevat Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Purim Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Pesach Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Shavuos All Night Learning, Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Summer Kollel Divrei Torah & Daily Shiurim, Tisha B'Av Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Women's Torah Shiurim, The best Shul Torah Library in Denver. The message is clear, Torah is for everyone. Join one of the above options and we guarantee that it will impact you and all those around you. If there is something we aren't providing, and you would like to see it at EDOS, please approach us. There would be nothing more that we would like to do then to increase Torah Learning at EDOS.

Tonight, we are celebrating and recognizing EDOS' 55 years of community leadership. Over the last 55 years, the members of EDOS have toiled in building a Shul. Ultimately, through their hard work the Shul has become a cornerstone of the community, allowing EDOS today to continue down the path of building & supporting Torah, Tefillah, and Tzedakah throughout the entire Denver.

Thank you to our dear friend and Executive Director, Rabbi Akiva Stern. We know how hard you work for our benefit all year long.

Thank you to our tireless leader, our President, for your compassion and commitment to the Shul. You're appreciated more than you know.

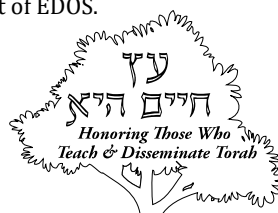

Rabbi and Rebbetzin Rapp, we thank you for your leadership, dedication, wit and wisdom. We have all benefited from your presence and we're very happy you will be with us for another year.

Thank you to all the Shul committees. EDOS would not function without you.

And thank you to the Dinner/Journal Co-chairs and committee for making this an outstanding evening.

Finally, thank you all for being here in support of EDOS.

We value and appreciate your friendship.

MINDY & JEFF HECHT

Dear Honored Rabbis and Guests,

It is a pleasure to welcome you all to this joyous occasion, the fifty-fifth-anniversary dinner for EDOS, and one honoring one of the special strengths of our Shul, our Eitzei Torah, those who are actively involved in conducting our Shiurim in deepening our knowledge of Torah.

The current roster and our special Honorees tonight includes: Dr. Shimon Blau, Rabbi Yisroel Engel, Dr. Steve Feldman, Rabbi Mordechai Fleisher, Shlomo Fried, Dr. Ivan Geller, Tzvi Gelt, Rabbi Hillel Goldberg (Librarian), Rabbi Aver Jacobs, Yisrael Katz, Rabbi Benji Last, Rabbi Raphael Leban, Avi Mehler, Rabbi Daniel Rapp & Dr. Chaya Rapp, Rabbi Chaim Sher, Rabbi Akiva Stern, Dr. Yitzchak Teitelbaum, Rabbi Yoel Unger, Rabbi Danny Wolfe.

The current Torah offered at EDOS throughout the year is as follows: Daily Daf Yomi, Daily Halacha Following Shacharis, Daily Dvar Torah/Halacha between Mincha and Maariv, Halacha In the Parsha Shiur Sunday Morning, MB Glassman Seniors Lunch & Learn on Monday, Gemorah Chaburah on Tuesday Morning, Machshava Shiur on Tuesday Night, NCSY Tuesday Night Beis Medrash, Thursday Gemorah Chaburah, Friday Night Dvar Torah, Shabbos Morning Rambam Shiur, Shabbos Morning Dvar Torah, Shabbos Afternoon Shiurim, Shalosh Seudos Dvar Torah, Rosh Hashanah Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Yom Kippur Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Succos Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Chanukah Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Tu B'Shevat Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Purim Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Pesach Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Shavuos All Night Learning, Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Summer Kollel Divrei Torah & Daily Shiurim, Tisha B'Av Divrei Torah & Shiurim, Women's Torah Shiurim, The best Shul Torah Library in Denver

As you can see from this list of speakers and list of Torah opportunities at EDOS, Torah is a central point at EDOS. It's an ideal that we don't take lightly, and it is certainly something that we are proud to provide to our members and the greater community. It is our hope that not only is this something that will continue to expand at rapid growth, but moreover be an impacting force that will continue to inspire and touch all our members and friends throughout the community for many years to come. It's for this reason why we launch tonight a Siyum of Tanach. Our goal is to make a Siyum by Shavuos time. Our hope is that the entire community from Men, Women, Children will participate in learning together with a celebration of unity taking place at the Chag of celebrating Torah that of Shavuos.

We are truly blessed to be able to be amongst friends and family who together make up the best community in the world, and, furthermore, be part of an institution that has impacted so many individuals in so many positive ways. May it be Hashem's will that the leadership and the qualities of using our talents continue to serve as the cornerstone of our community for many years to come.

We would like to thank the countless people who helped make this dinner possible. The committee and all the many members who helped make this evening happen were a dedicated and creative group. All the people and businesses who bought ads have contributed so that EDOS will prosper in the year ahead.

Finally, we want to thank everyone who is here tonight.

This evening is because of you and for you.

It is my great honor to wish the East Denver Orthodox Synagogue a mazal tov on the occasion of its 55th annual dinner. Our institutions are united in our mission to ensure the Jewish community remains both deeply rooted and forward focused as we strive to impact the world. As a synagogue that boasts a wide array of Torah lectures and resources, the East Denver Synagogue plays an important role in the support and growth of our community.

We at Yeshiva University are grateful for your partnership and are honored to share in this momentous occasion with you. May the successes of these past 55 years be the sturdy foundation from which you draw strength as you continue to impact the Jewish people and broader society.

Warm regards,

To the Members and Friends of the East Denver Orthodox Synagogue: It is a great pleasure to extend these words of greeting to the East Denver Orthodox Synagogue on the occasion of its 55 Anniversary Dinner.

For more than half a century, EDOS has served as an oasis of Torah for the east side of the Mile High City. Accordingly, EDOS is using this opportunity to recognize the contributions of some of its stalwart members and staunchest supporters. This year's honorees are strengths of our Shul, our Eitzei Torah, those who are actively involved in conducting our Shiurim in deepening our knowledge of Torah.

On behalf of the entire Orthodox Union family, we congratulate the honorees and their families, as well as Rabbi Daniel Rapp, president, and the entire kehilla. May this auspicious event usher in a new year of health, prosperity and success in our mutual avodas hakodesh.

Sincerely yours,

Dear EDOS Community,

Receiving the beautiful invitation to the 55th Annual EDOS Dinner, seeing the names of all the Honorees, and then the long list of "Torah @ Edos" Shiurim, brought back the fondest and most pleasant memories. How fortunate I was, to have had the zechus that Hashem sent my way, to spend two nights a week at EDOS, learning with the Olam at the Sunday Night Gemara Shiur, and the Tuesday Night Chumash Shiur. At this time, I'd like to thank Dr. Yitzchak Teitelbaum for founding the Tuesday Chumash Shiur. I so cherish the relationships that I have within the EDOS community, which resulted from the Tuesday Chumash Shiur.

I continue to feel blessed to be part of the extended EDOS family.

With warmest wishes for continued Hatzlacha,

Rabbi Yehuda Amsel

Entertainment: Yehuda Green

While the world of Jewish music has become saturated with “Shlomo Style” performances and performers, none have captured the hearts and souls of audiences around the world with the soft-spoken success of Yehuda Green. Born to a prominent Chassidic family in Jerusalem, Yehuda received his first exposure to the music of Reb Shlomo Carlebach at the age of five. Despite his tender age (or perhaps because of it), Yehuda immediately connected with Shlomo’s sincere --almost spiritual, soulfulness on a truly “organic” level. Rather than imitate it, his youthful innocence and exuberance enabled him to “absorb” its essence into his “musical DNA” and ultimately into his signature performance style.

It wasn’t until almost two decades later in New Hill England, when Yehuda had the privilege to share the stage with his “Rebbe” (to this day Yehuda describes himself as a Talmid (student) of the saintly Rav Shlomo”, rather than just a singer of his songs). Those fortunate enough to have been in the audience that evening describe an event that transcended any concert they’ve been to before or since. Clearly Shlomo sensed in Yehuda a “kindred spirit” --someone who shared his “voice” and deep regard for the power of the “Niggun”(song). That night evolved into a relationship that became the musical equivalent of “the passing of the torch”. Despite his perpetually busy performance schedule, Shlomo made it a point to join Yehuda at least three times a year in Israel for standing room only performances that became “the hottest ticket in town”--regardless of who else happened to be in town.

Those now legendary performances led to an inevitable invitation to the famed Carlebach Shul on Manhattan’s upper West Side, where Yehuda’s honest, earthy style immediately set him apart from the countless singers who incorporate interpretations of Shlomo into their performances. Perhaps the greatest compliment of all came about 10 years ago when Yehuda was chosen to lead services during the “Yomim Noraim”. Like the legend who inspires him both personally and professionally, Yehuda’s fan base is a “living lesson” in Jewish demography. The audiences at his sold-out concerts are comprised of people from Williamsburg to Westchester. Attend a Yehuda Green concert and odds are that you’ll find yourself sitting between a traditionally dressed resident of Skver on one side, a clearly Mizrachi type from Teaneck, NJ on the other and a “Uman yarmulkeh” clad Lower East Side hipster behind you.

Like Shlomo, the honesty of Yehuda’s music unites our people as only our almost universal love of song can. Regardless if it’s an intimate Kumsitz or a sold-out concert, Yehuda’s style evokes an emotionally response that few if any performers can match or, as he describes it--with a level of modesty that invariably brings his “mentor” to mind; “Music is about honesty--not affectation...since childhood my music and singing just naturally went in Shlomo’s direction...it’s that “Emes” that connects with audiences and Baruch Hashem lets them respond on a much deeper level.” People often say that Yehuda Green is “more Carlebach than Carlebach”. While we can’t attest to the validity of that obvious paradox, we can say that the feeling and message that Shlomo Carlebach put into his music has carried through to Yehuda Green. We are beyond thrilled to have Yehuda Green with us.

This serves as an opportunity to publicly express our great appreciation for all you do for us as a family.

You have always been and continue to be tremendous role models, not only to us, but to the Jewish community at large. Volunteering is your priority/persona. Your endless dedication to so many institutions, speaks to the outstanding value you place on community. Your dedication to the Klal and your commitment to everything that you're involved in is immeasurable.

Thank you for setting such a great example for us to follow.

To the Honorees this evening.

Your extreme commitment to EDOS and all the Jewish causes is illuminated this evening by this most deserved tribute. You constantly inspire us with your devotion to genuine Torah and its values and your display of Midos Tovos and Chesed. We are so beyond blessed to be part of a community where Torah is the focal point of the community. Thank you for teaching us so much and making an impact on our daily lives. All of you truly define the theme of tonight. May all of you continue to be teachers and builders, and all that you touch will become center stones of the community. May Hashem bless each of you and your families for all that you have done to build EDOS & the Denver Jewish Community.

Vayikra 19:32

“Rise up before the one who studies Torah”.

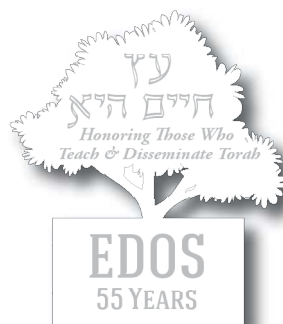

From this translation comes the tradition of honoring those who teach and know G-d’s Law.

We are able to fulfill this commandment today, either in its literal form, to rise up before the gray headed and honor the aged, or its traditional form, to honor those who teach Torah.

Mazal Tov and Thank You to all the honorees!

Fondly,

Ben Guiot and family

Thank you so much for all that you do for EDOS daily, weekly, monthly and throughout the year.

From the calendars to the newsletter,
and the upkeep of the website.

Let us not forget that Michael is also currently serving on the board as treasurer.

We are forever grateful to you for all that you do for us.

The Shul is only as amazing as the ones who invest in it and we are lucky to have you as part of our team.

We thank you for your continued dedication and support as always.
