Greetings

Welcome to all those attending our services. We also extend warm wishes to everyone who is part of our readership.

Welcome to Rav Yitzchak & Stefanie Etshalom, our Scholars-In-Residence for Shavuot!

Thank You

Thank You To The Donor—The Etshaloms' visit is sponsored, in part, by a generous anonymous donation in honor of Meryl & Alex Jacobs (a"h).

The Shavuot floral arrangements are sponsored by an anonymous donor in honor of the membership.

Mazel Tov

Mazel Tov to Joey Tesler, who as awarded the Rose Medical Center Student Athlete of the Year for 2026 at Denver Jewish Day School. Mazel Tov to parents David & Leah Tesler, grandmother Mourene Tesler, and the entire family!

Events & Notes

Eruv Tavshillin—In order to prepare for the Shabbat meal, Eruv Tavshillin is recited on Thursday, before the holiday starts, to enable completing the preparation on Friday.

Early Shema—The end of the time to say Shema on Shabbat morning is before we reach it in the normal course of davening between now and the end of July. Please remember to say the Shema early.

Early Davening—Beginning Friday evening (2nd day of Shavuot) we begin our summer schedule for early davening.

Early Shabbat—Those making early Shabbat on Friday can light after plag, at 6:42.

Shavuot—We have the pleasure of hosting Rabbi Yitzchak Etshalom and Stefanie Etshalom as our Scholars-in-Residence for Shavuot.

Rav Yitzchak Etshalom was born and raised in Los Angeles. He attended Yeshivat Kerem B'Yavne, Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary and Yeshivat Har Etzion before receiving Semicha from the Chief Rabbi of Yerushalayim. He teaches Tanach and Gemara at the YULA High Schools, besides being a sought-after Scholar in Residence throughout North America and Israel. His critically acclaimed series Between the Lines of the Bible is a methodological guide to the study of Tanach and his book on Amos was published in the fall of 2024 as part of the Koren Maggid Studies in Tanakh. Rabbi Etshalom lives in Los Angeles with his wife Stefanie, also a dynamic educator; their children live in Yerushalayim, Washington Heights and Teaneck. Stefanie Etshalom has worked with children of all ages from Mommy and Me class through college freshman as teacher, administrator, director of student activities, preschool Morah, camp psychologist and more. Stefanie enjoys sharing her experiences in formal and informal talks about child-rearing and early childhood education. She holds a master's in education and administration and is currently the director of the Torah U'mada program for Harkham Hillel Hebrew Academy in Los Angeles. She is the mother of 5 children in their 20's.
